TAXATION ACTS SNOWED UNDER

Ohio Voters Reject Proposed Amendments.

OLD AGE PENSIONS ALSO HIT

Rural Counties of the State Poll Heavy Vote Against All Six of the Propositions Submitted — Workmen's Compensation Amendment Also Suffers Heavily in the Country Districts.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Returns indicate the defeat of every statewide proposal submitted to the voters of Ohio. Possible exceptions might be the proposed amendments to the constitution which provide for strengthening of the workmen's compensation system, and which eliminate the words "white male" from the sections defining qualifications of a voter.

Voters in the rural districts apparently were taking no chances, and voted "no" on all of the six propositions submitted. Even the workmen's compensation amendment, which has practically no opposition, and which was supported by the Ohio Manufacturers' association and the Ohio Federation of Labor, suffered heavily in the country. Votes against it were far greater than those against the voting qualifications, this being attributed to the fact that the women voters nearly all favored the removal of the apparent restrictions against their franchise.

Governor Donahey's veto of the Taft and Albaugh taxation bills last winter apparently was upheld overwhelmingly by the electorate, majorities of as high as five to one being rolled up against the two proposals in some rural counties.

The proposed old age pension system was snowed under. The proposed constitutional amendment, which would have given the secretary of state the right to print arguments for and against proposals which go on a statewide initiative or referendum ballot in newspapers rather than to send them through the mail, also met with defeat.

Returns from 85 counties show: Workmen's compensation, yes 224,720, no 218,597; Taft referendum, yes 136,955, no 298,613; Albaugh referendum, yes 86,494, no 303,433. Old age pension, yes 145,715, no 313,528.

Thomas Re-elected.
Columbus, Nov. 7.—Mayor James J. Thomas was re-elected over three opponents. He has a decisive majority in first-choice votes. Thomas' vote was more than double that of his nearest opponent, Randolph W. Walton. Wyatt Millikin and John T. Adams received only a scattered handful of ballots. The Republicans captured other city offices, but were not so fortunate in the council race, where Olga Anna Jones and John M. Lewis, backed jointly by the Democratic organization and the Columbus Home Rule association, were successful. The home rulers will control the council. The city voted to adopt eastern time all year.

Cleveland Elects Council.
Cleveland, Nov. 7.—Some 120,000 Cleveland citizens voted at the first "proportional representation" councilmanic election. From this council of 25 members will be chosen one to act as mayor, who will also preside at the meetings of council. A city manager, in whom will vest practically all real power, will be chosen outside the councilmanic body. The official count, which will determine the greater part of the membership, begins Thursday morning. The complete make-up of the new council will not be known for two or three weeks at least.

Had Klan Support.
Akron, O., Nov. 7.—Mayor D. C. Rybolt, Republican, was re-elected mayor at Tuesday's election, piling up a plurality of nearly 12,000 votes over his Democratic opponent, R. A. Myers. It was one of the most decisive victories gained in a local municipal election. Rybolt was said to have the support of Klan.

Gableman Defeated.
Portsmouth, O., Nov. 7.—Ralph Calvert, Republican, defeated Mayor William N. Gableman, candidate for re-election by over 1,000. Mayor Gableman two weeks ago ordered the arrest of marching Ku Klux Klansmen and the Klan centered their fight upon him.

Hawkins Re-elected.
Steubenville, O., Nov. 7.—Mayor Frank A. Hawkins, bitterly fought by the Ku Klux Klan, has been re-elected.

GEORGE LOCKWOOD

Secretary of the Republican National Committee.

ed by a plurality of about 500, over Herman B. Passavant, avowed Klan candidate.

Scheible Elected Mayor.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 7.—Charles F. Scheible, Klan candidate for mayor of Youngstown, was elected here by an estimated plurality of 6,000 over five opponents.

Brough Wins.

Toledo, Nov. 7.—Mayor Bernard Brough, Republican, has been re-elected mayor of Toledo.

Discuss Railroad Problem.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa went to the white house at President Coolidge's request to discuss the railroad problem and the question of remedial legislation at the coming session of congress. On leaving the president's office, Senator Cummins declared his talk with the president will not result in any change in his intention to introduce his bill for compulsory consolidation of the hundreds of existing lines into a small number of competitive regional systems shortly after congress is convened in December.

Girl Murdered.

Akron, O., Nov. 7.—After assaulting Elizabeth Nagy, 13, Alexander Kuszik, 19, struck the girl in the forehead with a hammer, killing her instantly, according to the police, who are holding the youth on a charge of murder.

REPUBLICANS HOLD VERMONT

Dale Defeats Coolidge's Cousin For Senator.

HONORS DIVIDED IN NEW YORK

Democrats Sweep the Metropolis, While Republicans Make Gain in Next State Assembly—Kentucky and Maryland Elect Democratic State Officers—Latest Returns of the Elections.

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 7.—President Coolidge's native state remains rock-ribbed Republican and the president's cousin, a Democrat, will continue to sell groceries at his general store in Cavendish.

Porter H. Dale of Island Pond, as staunch a Republican as ever lived among the Green mountains, was elected United States senator to succeed the late William P. Dillingham, Republican. Dale by a vote of two to one defeated Park H. Pollard, Democrat, of Cavendish, a cousin of President Coolidge.

The wets and the dries saw some significance in the election of ex-Congressman Dale to the senate. Dale had stood on a dry platform. Pollard advocated liberalizing the eighteenth amendment. So the dries claimed they had it. A third candidate for senator, Marshall J. Haggood, the "Sage of Peru," and the largest landowner in southern Vermont, polled a few votes here and there.

The contest in the Second congressional district for the seat in the house of representatives formerly held by Mr. Dale, developed into a landslide for Colonel Ernest W. Gibson of Brattleboro, Rep.

RESULTS IN NEW YORK

Democrats Sweep Greater City and Republicans Gain Congressmen.

New York, Nov. 7.—Republicans and Democrats divided the honors in the election in New York state.

Returns show that the Republicans will control the next state assembly with a gain of six seats. The present representation is 81 Republicans and 69 Democrats. The Republicans also gained one in their representation in congress by the election of Benjamin E. Fairchild in the Twenty-fourth district. He will succeed James V. Ganly, Democrat, who was recently killed in an automobile accident. In Greater New York the Democrats elected 10 judges by pluralities approximating 140,000. In the Thirty-second congressional district former Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet, Republican, won. The congressional seat left vacant by Bourke Cockran will be taken by J. J. O'Connor, Democrat. Anning S. Pratt, Democrat, defeated Guy O. Palmer, Republican, in the Eleventh congressional district.

Maryland Democratic.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—Governor Albert C. Ritchie has been re-elected and virtually the entire Democratic ticket swept into office by a landslide in Baltimore city. City majorities for Ritchie, William S. Gordy and Thomas H. Robinson, candidates for governor, comptroller and attorney general, respectively, will overwhelm Alexander Armstrong, Republican candidate for governor, and his running mates. On the basis of returns the Democrats will control both houses of the next legislature by substantial majorities. Ritchie's plurality is placed at 30,000.

HINTS AT STERN MEASURES

Premier Poincare Telegraphs an Ultimatum to Berlin.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Acting under urgent instructions from the council of ambassadors, Premier Poincare telegraphed an ultimatum to Berlin, demanding that Germany answer before the end of the week whether Germany is willing to permit interallied military control to be resumed. There was no mention of "sanctions" in the ultimatum, but it is understood that France is prepared to take the sternest measures.

The papers here have suddenly dropped their long discussion of the Hughes proposals, under orders to play up the terrible conditions in Germany. It is learned in high quarters that both the Quai d'Orsay and Downing street are seriously alarmed at the state of affairs in Germany. Private information coming in uncensored over diplomatic wires indicates a state of desperation in the reich approaching a situation near to defiance of the allies.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Padlock Law Attacked.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Attacking the constitutionality of the new "padlock" law, Roy E. Betz and Florence Betz, owners of the Gray Manor inn, a roadside near this city, through their attorney, have filed a demurrer to the petition filed by Prosecutor John King against Kathryn Welker, lessee of the inn, to close the place for a year. The demurrer, as filed, does not disclose the grounds upon which the complain of unconstitutionality is based, but merely makes the simple allegation that the law under which the prosecutor's petition is brought is unconstitutional.

Rail Union Heads to Meet.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—A meeting of the chief executives of the 16 standard railroad labor organizations "for the purpose of agreeing upon a definite legislative policy in connection with matters to come before the next congress" has been called by Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to meet in Washington, Nov. 14, Mr. Stone announced.

Insane Prisoners Escape.

The three men are Joseph Pachek, 24, committed for life for numerous burglaries; John Fulton, 26, and Andrew Sirolnik, who is said to be the most dangerous of the trio, being listed in the violent class.

Power Plant Burns.

Mt. Sterling, O., Nov. 7.—Mt. Sterling was without light or water for 24 hours as a result of the fire which totally destroyed the water and light plant here. The fire started when sparks from the exhaust of an engine fell in some oil. Damage was estimated at $50,000.

Oil Boat Burns.

Gallipolis, O., Nov. 7.—The gas boat Cocoa, owned by the Pure Oil Gas company, Columbus, burned to the water's edge in the Ohio river, near Brush Creek island. Members of the crew saved their lives by jumping on a barge loaded with gasoline, which the Cocoa was towing.

Diphtheria Epidemic.

Wooster, O., Nov. 7.—A diphtheria epidemic at Burbank has caused Wayne county health officials to place a quarantine on the entire village. Newspapers can not be distributed, nor can residents leave their homes, except on urgent business.

Truck Driver Killed.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Neil Barkus of Circleville was killed near Canal Winchester, this county, when a truck he was driving was struck by a north-bound Hocking Valley train. Barkus was placed on the train, but died before reaching Columbus.

Mayor Curtis Re-elected.

Canton, O., Nov. 7.—Mayor C. C. Curtis, Republican, has been re-elected by a majority of over 3,000 over August Smith, Democrat.

Centennial of Monroe Doctrine.

The 100th anniversary of President Monroe's message to congress, which included a statement of the doctrine, will occur Dec. 2. President Coolidge, it was explained, expects to comment on the centennial.

AMERICA DESIRES TO BE HELPFUL

President Coolidge Outlines Present Situation.

PARTICIPATION UP TO FRANCE

Chief Executive Lets It Be Known That the American Government Is Not Urging Anything on Anyone. Collapse of Hughes Reparations Plan Practically Confirmed—Day's Developments.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Coolidge practically confirmed the collapse of the Hughes plan for American participation in the reparations controversy.

The confirmation was given following a long conference between the president and Jules Jusserand, French ambassador, and a thorough discussion of the situation by the cabinet.

It was patent that M. Jusserand had failed to impress the chief executive with the soundness of the views held by Premier Poincare, who demands consideration of international indebtedness in return for consenting to a thorough inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay. The French ambassador vainly urged upon the president the opinions spread broadcast from Paris.

Mr. Coolidge adhered strictly to the view that the situation called for a thorough inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay and that there was no connection between such an inquiry and international indebtedness. The president made it plain that the American government was not "urging anything on anyone," and that the French "state of mind" will determine the question of American participation.

The president's estimate of the situation was outlined in his statement substantially as follows: "The American position is a desire to be helpful. We have no other motive. We have no direct interest to serve; no expectation of reaping any reward. We are undertaking to discharge our obligation by lending our counsel, if we can. There is no occasion for being disturbed or discouraged if we can not in 24 hours accomplish what Europe has been trying to do for hundreds of years. We must be patient and do the best we can."

Despite the conviction that the Hughes-Curzon scheme has collapsed, Secretary Hughes and the British government are obviously hard at work to save something from the wreckage. Great Britain hopes that, even without French participation, it may be possible to win American participation in some scheme for dealing with the reparations problem.

TO SEEK LEGISLATION

Farley Would Facilitate Operation of Merchant Marine.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Legislation may be expected from the new congress to facilitate government operation of the American merchant marine, it was indicated at the white house. Chairman Farley told President Coolidge in a recent conference that when he returns from his present European tour he will recommend additional laws. It is assumed he will attempt to induce congress to legalize the scheme for incorporating a number of companies to take over and operate the ships. This plan went on the rocks recently when Attorney General Daugherty unexpectedly ruled it illegal. This plan is believed by Farley to offer a solution of the present differences to a large extent. In the meantime, it is believed certain congressmen will sponsor legislation of their own to help the situation.

Democrats Carry Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—The lead of William J. Fields, Democrat, over Charles I. Dawson, Republican, in the Kentucky gubernatorial race, was placed at about 20,000 in Louisville. Returns from counties of western Kentucky showed substantial Democratic majorities, while a factional Republican fight over a judgeship in the eleventh congressional district is believed to have cost Dawson thousands of votes. Democratic state headquarters are claiming a Fields victory by 40,000.

Cornwell Lands.

London, O., Nov. 7.—Leroy Cornwell, Republican anti-klan candidate, was elected over C. H. Long, Democrat, by an overwhelming majority.

CURE FOR LUNG DISEASES

Male Goat's Odor Said to Have Important Therapeutic Value.

Paris, Nov. 7.—The peculiar odor of the male goat has an important therapeutic value, according to Dr. George Louvel, in the Medical Review. Dr. Louvel states that this is particularly true in the treatment of tuberculosis and diseases of the lungs and bronchial tubes. "The goat, supposedly charged with the sins of Israel," says Dr. Louvel, "is nothing more nor less than an agent for disinfection created by the Almighty. Put the goat in a stable where cows and other animals are dying and the epidemic soon disappears, and the sick animals recover. I hope to found a sanatorium where the punatic smells of the goat will be the sole agent used as a cure for lung diseases." Dr. Louvel points out that the goat is the only animal absolutely immune from tuberculosis. The article asserts that several cases of bronchial pneumonia have been cured by introducing goats into the sick chamber and letting them sleep in the same bed with the patient.

BOOTLEGGERS DO THRIVING BUSINESS

Liquor Shipments From Nassau to United States.

Washington, Nov. 7.—An idea of the vast amount of liquor that is being smuggled into the United States is contained in a report on prohibition activities, submitted to Attorney General Daugherty by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of dry law enforcement.

Shipments from Nassau alone, practically all of which were destined for the United States, amounted in value during the past year to $7,059,294, the report states. The importations to Nassau during the same period amounted to $4,500,000. "The difference in the figures represents the bootleggers' profits as a result of operations carried on through this one port," says Mrs. Willebrandt.

The department is encouraging wider use of "padlock" proceedings to impress owners with their responsibility for misuse of their property, the report states, adding: "Some success has been achieved in certain districts by this line of proceedings and injunctions are being filed in increasing numbers."

Alberta Province Votes Wet.

Calgary, Alberta, Nov. 7.—Alberta voted wet, according to tabulations of the balloting. The province has been dry for seven years. Returns indicate that the clause calling for government control and sale of liquor will carry by a majority of between 35,000 and 40,000.

LYCEUM THEATER

In the announcement of the continuous presentation of "Able's Irish Rose" at the Lyceum theater for a third week, beginning Sunday matinee November 4, Columbus records for a consecutive run of the same play are broken. Capacity audiences is the general rule here as in all cities in which Anne Nichols' sensational successful comedy is presented, with a heavy advance sale indicating the increasing popularity of "Able."

The splendid cast of players here, a combination of the late Pittsburgh organization and a few members of the present New York company loaned for Columbus engagement have got together in their best stride and are giving a performance of perfect team work. Already the box office ticket sellers are reporting return visits of many patrons who have seen "Able's Irish Rose" more than once. This is a usual feature in the engagements of this play, for its action is so rapid, the dialogue so scintillating and the situations so complicated, that a second or third visit is enjoyed more than the first one. Under all the surface of roaring laugh provoking scenes there are touches of pathos to relieve the strain of continuous laughter and a moral contained in its concrete illustration that a broad spirit of tolerance and love will reconcile age old antagonisms. In this play, Abie, a Jewish youth, marries Rosemary Murphy, an Irish Catholic girl, and at once lets loose the warring characteristics contained in the natures of the widely differing viewpoints of their respective fathers. That Abie and Rosie marry three times, the ceremonies being performed by a Methodist minister, a Rabbi and a priest, in a vain effort to please their fathers, affords a series of situations better imagined than described. This theme as is the case with the entire play is of course treated from a screamingly funny, humorous angle without offense to the most sensitive. Matinee performances are given Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Handling of Hogs Causes Big Loss

Annual Waste That Is Unnecessary and Most of It Due to Carelessness.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Loss through injury to hogs in shipment to market is an important item affecting the profits of the farmer and shipper. During the past year in a period of six months there were received at nine of the principal stock yards of the country a total of 28,375 dead hogs and 38,708 in a more or less crippled condition, according to reports received by the United States Department of Agriculture. These figures indicate clearly a waste that is largely unnecessary, most of which can be attributed to carelessness on the part of those handling the animals at the points of origin of shipments.

Do Not Hurry Hogs.

Aside from the wrecks and extreme weather conditions, there seems to be no logical reason for so many hogs dying between points of origin and destination. Much fault in this respect is attributed to improper handling of swine just prior to shipment. Quite often hogs about to be shipped are rushed to some small inclosure, penned up in a crowded way, and fed a very heavy ration preparatory to being hauled or driven to a stock car. In getting them to a loading point frequently the animals are prodded, kicked, and hurried until worried into a highly nervous condition. Such hogs are often loaded in cars containing sharp pieces of broken timber, nails sticking out of boards, and in which the flooring is covered with mud and rubbish, no precaution being taken to remedy these dangerous conditions. Often no bedding of any kind is provided. Under such circumstances many of the animals reach the yards badly crippled, the injuries commonly involving the hind quarters, resulting in lowered quality of the most valuable cuts—the hams.

Avoid Crowding Animals.

When ready for market, hogs should be assembled a sufficient length of time prior to the date of shipment to allow them to become rested. They should not be crowded into small pens or houses nor fed heavy rations. If they are driven to the loading point they should not be rushed on the way; if they are hauled too many hogs should not be crowded into the truck or wagon. The loading chutes should not be too steep, should be made secure and should have the sides protected so that the animals will not fall off. Crowding too many hogs in a car, particularly in hot weather, is likely to result in a number of them dying in transit. Loading hogs after a heavy feed is injurious to them. A little hunger is far better for them on the journey than indigestion. There is nothing to be gained in added weight of the animals by forced feeding just before shipping. The aim should be to get as many hogs as possible to the stock yards in good condition.

Rat-Proofing Interest

Is Aroused in Oregon

The effect of anti-rat campaigns in Oregon has been notable in the continued interest taken in rat-prevention and rat-proofing measures. One of the largest owners of real estate in the public market of Portland was so favorably impressed with the work done last year under the leadership of the biological survey, United States Department of Agriculture, in destroying rats and in establishing rat-proof conditions that he has torn out the entire interior of two of the largest buildings and is finishing them wholly with concrete with a view to making them completely rat-proof.

In Little Rock, Ark., as a result of the anti-rat campaign which was launched there, steps were taken for the inauguration of a general clean-up campaign in the city and for the establishment of more satisfactory ordinances governing the construction and repair of buildings, the disposal of garbage and the screening of food products.

Tough Fowls Cut Prices and Discourage Sales

Tough chicken is not only a distasteful dish but it discourages the consumption of both live and dressed poultry in cities and towns where the old-fashioned fattening coop has been removed from the back yard by people who now depend upon the farmer or poultry plant owner to feed the birds and put them in shape for the pot and pan.

The skinny birds sent to the market not only get a "cool reception" when they are displayed on the table but the family is not likely to request chicken again soon. Repeat orders are just as essential to the poultryman as they are to other merchants. In this field the flock owner can do much to increase his business and revenue.

Little to Employ Labor

Unless Live Stock Kept

After the heavy fall work on crops is completed there is little to profitably employ the labor on a farm unless live stock is kept. Cows, hogs and chickens use time that would not be otherwise occupied in the winter, and consume feeds that could not be marketed otherwise. Returns for this feed and labor increase the net profit to the business by their amount.

HIT BY TRAIN

Cornelius Barkes Died in Hospital as Result of Injuries.

Cornelius Ellsworth Barkes died at Grant hospital, Columbus, Tuesday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock, of injuries received when he was struck by a Hocking Valley passenger train six miles out of Columbus that morning.

His skull was fractured and left leg broken.

He was a son of Thomas Barkes and Rebecca Hickman Barkes and was the sole support of his invalid mother who lives on the Lancaster pike.

He was born February 1, 1875, and he leaves his mother and three brothers and three sisters. They are Mrs. Letta Smyers, Mrs. Dora Drake, Mrs. Rosa Caldwell, James E. Barkes, Henry D. Barkes, of this city, and C. C. Barkes, of Zanesville.

The funeral services will be held from the home of Mrs. Drake, corner Mingo and Union street Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. J. Dollison. Burial in Forest cemetery.

Two Remarkable Rides.

A remarkable achievement of an English rider dates back to Shakespearean days. Robert Carey is said to have ridden from Whitehall to Edinburgh, 400 miles, in three days, carrying the news of the death of Queen Elizabeth to James VI. He made another noted ride from London to the Netherlands, with the news of Cardinal Wolsey's death, traveling by boat from London to Gravesend and riding the intermediate distances. He left London, according to the accounts, at 4 o'clock one afternoon and was back in London at sunset the second day thereafter.

Something About Olives.

Like other fruit trees, the olive tree has many enemies, including birds and insects. The most dreaded of these is a small fly called dacus elceae, half the size of a house fly. It is calculated that a single fly will destroy 300 or 400 olives. The only remedy is to gather the fruit early, and by crushing it at once destroy the larvae.

CECIL FANNING

Famous Baritone Will be at the School Auditorium Friday.

Columbus set its seal of approval on Cecil Fanning Monday night when he appeared in a concert at Memorial hall.

He sang in four languages and every syllable was distinct. Clearness of diction is one of Mr. Fanning's marked characteristics. The judgment of his audience was that his mastery of tone which was flowing, inspiring and sympathetic, together with his interpretive genius and natural and winning personality, make him one of America's best singers. On several occasions applause broke forth before Mr. Fanning had finished the final note in a selection.

He will present practically the same program Friday evening at the high school auditorium in Circleville.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the club and at Wilder's, Hamilton & Ryan and Grand-Girard's drug stores. 7novd2w1.

Tolling the "Passing Bell."

The passing bell was rung in English pre-reformation times for the dying as well as after death. The practice grew out of the belief that devils and evil spirits troubled the dying and lay in wait to torment the soul when it had left the body. After the reformation the passing bell was discontinued, although tolling after a death is still the custom.

Biblical Petroleum.

Petroleum is first mentioned in the Bible in the account of the destruction of the tower of Babel. The partially evaporated fluid is there referred to as "slime" which "they had for mortar."

HARTMAN THEATER

The first of the great metropolitan girl-and-music annuals to be seen in Columbus this season is the Greenwich Village Follies. The new fourth edition of this picturesque and refreshingly artistic revue will be on display at the Hartman theater Columbus for a single week starting Monday night, November 12. Last season it was conceded to be the revue hit of New York where it played for 32 weeks at the Shubert theater. For the past weeks it has been a soaring success at the Apollo theater, Chicago, and it comes to Columbus direct from that city in a special train of eight cars. Three of the Greenwich Village series have already exhibited in Columbus to enthusiastic audiences and this newest version is reputed to surpass all its predecessors in gaiety, wit, pictorial and melodic excellence.

The fine enthusiasm and youthful buoyancy which marks the deportment of the current "Follies" can be credited to the artistry and imaginative genius of its creator, John Murray Anderson. Anderson is said to have the best eye for color and grouping of any of our stage producers, a claim well substantiated in the present "Follies." A novelty constructed and adroitly schemed revue is this "Follies," with song, dance and japey interlaced in a happy and fleetly moving picture.

It burlesques Balieff and Chauve Souris, goes back to the days of Tony Pastor for a comic bout with the illustrated songs of that period ascends to high art in a reproduction of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" and an interpretation of Oscar Wilde's "The Nightingale and the Rose," becomes precariously modern in a humorous sketch "Life Among the Advertisements," and all in all runs an amazingly long gamut of diversified entertainment.

Mr. Anderson has summoned an imposing list of players under his gay banner to compete in the "Follies." Prominent among them is Carl Randall, Karyl Norman, "The Creole Fashion Plate," Ula Sharon, George Rasely, John Sheehan, Dorothy Neville, Ethel Davis, Julia Silvers, Marjorie Peterson, George Christie, Louis and Frieda Berkoff, Fortunella and Cirillino, Clifton and DeRex and Chase and LaTour and the thirty famous artists models.

The book of the "Follies" is by George V. Hobart, with contributions from George B. Kaufman and William K. Wells. The music is by Louis A. Hirsch and the lyrics by John Murray Anderson and Irving Caesar. Conspicuous among these last and well known are "Sixty Seconds Every Minute" and "Sweetheart Lane."

The Greenwich Village Follies is said to move with flawless pace and happy temp, flouting all the blueprints and traditions of the stage and providing ample recreation for the eye as well as regaling the ear.

Mail orders from out of town people will be given careful consideration if addressed to the Hartman boxoffice accompanied by check or money order

Beyond His Control.

Robert had entertained his cousin for two or three days, but at the end of the third day, a discussion arose and a hand to hand fight ensued. His mother, hearing the commotion, quickly rushed to the scene and admonished, "It isn't nice to fight, Robert," she said, "especially your own relation and guest," but her son in the heat of passion, replied, "It don't make any difference whether he is my 'lation or not, my mad feels just the same."

The Power in a Tree.

A young man wished to measure the force that drives the sap upward in trees and shrubs. So he cut a vine and tied a bladder over its end. In two hours the bladder was greatly distended, and inside of three hours it burst with a pop, so great is the force that drives sap upward.—Popular Science Monthly.

WANT MRS. HARDING

May Become Delegate-at-Large to the Republican Convention.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, widow of President Harding, has been asked to join the councils of the party her late husband led to victory. They want her to become a delegate-at-large from the state of Ohio to the next Republican convention, both as a tribute to the memory of Mr. Harding and for her genuine worth as a sound politician and adviser. There is also the probability, if she will consent to come from retirement to represent her state, that she will be asked to go a step further and accept some more important post in the national committee during the forthcoming campaign. She has not definitely reached a decision, it was learned, but inclines very strongly toward accepting the state position at any rate.

Victims' Bodies Recovered.

Beckley, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Twenty-seven men were killed by an explosion in the Glen Rogers mine of the Raleigh-Wyoming Coal company, in a remote mountain district 25 miles from here. The bodies have been recovered. The explosion was confined to one entry.

West Virginia Wins.

New York, Nov. 7.—Fifteen thousand football fans saw West Virginia trounce hitherto undefeated Rutgers by a score of 27 to 7, in the Polo grounds here. The field was heavy and muddy in spots. It was Rutgers' first defeat of the season.

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter.

Elyria, O., Nov. 7.—Joseph Chapal, indicted for second degree murder in the killing of Joe Biro, during a quarrel at South Amherst, was permitted to plead guilty to manslaughter. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for from one to 20 years.

Walton Appeals to Federal Courts, Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—Governor J. C. Walton has appealed to the federal courts in an effort to invoke government intervention in the situation here. On the outcome of the action is expected to depend the question of whether the impeachment proceedings against the executive will be disposed of in the near future, or whether they will await a final decision by the United States supreme court.

You don't need to go out of town to have your pleating done. Just go to the phone and call Barnhill's No. 710. 5novd12.

AMUSEMENTS

"How does the boy do it?" you hear in awesome and admiring tones from those who have watched the progress of Harold Lloyd during the last three years, each picture setting a higher standard than the last, until it seems that surely he has reached the zenith of comedy production. But then comes his next Pathecomedy, and it is not only funnier, but is different in type.

Now we have "Why Worry" to not only laugh at, but to shake our heads at and marvel over. It is Lloyd's first serious attempt at straight farce. Here are real characters and entirely probable situations exaggerated to a state of absurdity that yet remains within the realms of possibility.

"Why Worry," is the story of an American youth, accustomed to luxury who has a flare of adventure in his make-up. He goes to South America and promptly becomes enmeshed in a fierce, fiery and flaming revolution. It is a story of intrigue and romance such as Richard Harding Davis would revel in, yet containing surprises and twists such as O. Henry would give it, and is a decided departure from previous Lloyd stories.

From the moment Lloyd is introduced being taken aboard ship on a stretcher to the final fade-out, where he is tying up traffic, "Why Worry" is one mirthful, hilarious situation after another each situation inextricably bound up with the plot, thereby producing a staccato laugh effect throughout the entire development of a story that intrigues the interest, while adding the glow of romance.

Conspicuous among Lloyd's aides in "Why Worry" are Jobyna Ralston and John Aasen. Jobyna is young, pretty and spirited. Aasen is an 8 foot 9 inch giant and is such a hit we prophecy giants on the screen will be in demand hereafter. He takes you back to the days when you believed in Jack, the Giant Killer.

"Why Worry" is a riot of fun and the only thing for you to worry about is getting into the Met theater during its run.

Time.

Now, for the truth, of things, time makes no alteration; things are still the same as they are, let the time be past, present, or to come. Those things which we reverence for antiquity, what were they at their first birth? Were they, false?—Time cannot make them true. Were they true?—Time cannot make them more true. The circumstance, therefore, of time, in respect of truth and error, is merely impertinent.—John Hales (1628).

PAY WIDOWS OF "VETS" OF 1812

U. S. Still Gives Pensions to Widows of Men Who Fought 111 Years Ago.

Washington.—How long a pension list persists after war is over is shown in a striking manner by the rolls of the government for the War of 1812 and for the Mexican war. There is not a veteran of the War of 1812 alive, yet it cost the government $18,010 for pensioners of that war during the past year.

On June 30 last there were 38 widows and one dependent daughter of veterans of 1812 on the pension list. The seventy-fifth anniversary of the close of the Mexican war was celebrated on May 30 last, and yet during the fiscal year 1923 there were 49 veterans and 1,030 widows of veterans who fought in that war receiving $717,847 in pensions from the government.

It is a curious fact that not one of the pensioners of the War of 1812 was born when the war was confided. The oldest is one hundred and four years old, while the youngest is sixty-three. One other is over the one hundred mark. The rest range between eighty and one hundred years. The explanation is that the veterans married women much younger than themselves. In the case of the widow pensioner sixty-three years old her husband must have been from forty-five to fifty-five years older.

Mexican "Vets" Over Ninety.
All of the veterans of the Mexican war are over ninety years of age, the oldest one being Urban Chandeur of San Francisco, who passed the one hundredth milestone on June 6, 1923. A unique Mexican war case is that of William Brown of Camden, N. J., who at the tender age of eight years enlisted in the marine corps and fought throughout the war.

War is a costly business, not only from the point of view of actual fighting expenses but also that of paying pensions to the old and disabled veterans and their dependent widows and children, officials of the bureau of pensions assert. Back in 1877 there were 232,104 persons on the pension rolls of the government, involving an annual disbursement of $28,182,821.72. This was when the largest number of War of 1812 and Mexican war pensioners were on the rolls. A few years later Civil war veterans began to take advantage of the pension privilege and the expense jumped much higher. Pensions Total $263,012,500.

While there are no separate figures available as to just what the disbursements were to War of 1812 and Mexican war pensioners for those years, it is known that they figured very heavily in the total. In 1885 the pension disbursement amounted to $65,171,337.12 with 345,125 persons on the rolls. From then on it gradually increased until 1919, when the cost was $222,159,292, with 624,427 persons on the rolls. For 1923 the total amount of pensions paid out was $263,012,500. Most of this amount, of course, was paid to Civil war and Spanish war pensioners, less than $1,000,000 of it going to pensioners of the War of 1812 and Mexican war.

There are no longer any soldiers who actually fought in the War of 1812 on the pension rolls, the last one being Hiram Cronk, who died in Ava, N. Y., in 1905, at the age of one hundred and five. The last soldier pensioner of the Revolutionary war was Daniel F. Bakeman, who died at Freedom, N. Y., in 1889, at the age of one hundred and nine years, while the last pensioner of the Revolutionary war was Esther S. Damon, widow of Noah Damon, who died at Plymouth Union, Vt., in 1906, at the age of ninety-six years.

35,000 Widows Pensioned.
All told, approximately 35,000 widows of soldiers of the War of 1812 were granted service pensions, the high water mark being reached in 1879, when there were 18,177 on the rolls.

The original 35,000 widows of soldiers of the War of 1812 who were granted pensions had shrunk to only 40 on June 30. Since that time death has claimed one of them, reducing the figure to 39. Of the many thousands of veterans and widows of veterans of the Mexican war who were granted pensions only 49 veterans and 1,030 widows of veterans remain. An idea of how fast the number is decreasing can be gained by the figures for the last fiscal year. On June 30, 1922, there were 49 pensioners of the War of 1812, compared to only 40 one year later. On June 30, 1922, there were 1,951 Mexican war pensioners on the rolls, compared to only 1,085 one year later.

The amount paid to pensioners of the War of 1812 ranges anywhere from $10 to $100 a month. But most of them receive not over $50 a month. It all depends on the extent of their disability, and the amount necessary to insure them proper medical attention.

German Art Thieves Busy.
Munich.—Burglars recently rifled the villa of the late Franz von Lenbach, painter of the well-known Bismarck pictures who has been dead for 20 years, and stole a number of valuable masterpieces. These included a picture by Franz Hals called "The Laughing Boys," two pictures by Teniers, an original sketch by Rubens, and a number of paintings by Lucas Cranach and other celebrated artists.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday evening a jolly crowd of the east end folks gathered at the home of Mrs. George Hartman in East Franklin street, to remind her that Sunday had been her birthday. To say she was surprised would be expressing it mildly for she was getting ready to retire when the noisy bunch burst in upon her. Nevertheless all were welcomed heartily. A very enjoyable evening followed listening to some fine Victrola music, conversation and last but not least, some jolly old-fashioned games in which old and young entered heartily. This caused much merriment, as some very comical stunts were put on. Dainty refreshments of delicious homemade cake, ice cream, nuts and coffee were served and at a late hour all departed wishing Mrs. Hartman many more such happy birthdays. Those present were Mrs. Elizabeth Peters, Mrs. Emma Bolender, Mrs. Steinhouser and daughters Dorothy and Margaret, Mrs. Doris Justice and son, Jack, Mrs. John Staiger, Mrs. Ananias Morris, Mrs. M. R. White, Mrs. Harry Welch, Miss Nelle McCollister and niece, Violet, Mrs. Maude Noggle, Mrs. Luther Noggle, Mrs. Maggie Smith, Mrs. Will Kockensparger and baby, Mrs. Georgia Cutler and daughter, Geraldine, Mrs. Pearl Harrison, Mrs. Bessie Long and daughters, Ruth and Margaret, Mrs. Samuel Hawks, Mrs. O. K. Heise, Mrs. Abbie Gussman, Mrs. Kate Reichelderfer, Mrs. Imler, Mrs. Claude Robison and son, James and the host and hostess. Mrs. Hartman was presented with a box of pretty handkerchiefs and a dollar bill.

Hotel Stenographer

BY ROE FULKERSON

"Bloole," exclaimed the Detective!
"She leaves little to the imagination," agreed the Hotel Stenographer. "I know by the way that dress is cut down at the neck that she is either French, or an American woman just home from Paris.

"But women who fall out of their clothes, like that, cannot hope to land many men. They are like the ballyhoo of the sideshow, who pulls all his stuff on a platform in front of the tent and leaves no incentive for the rube to go in and see more.

"Lace is intriguing, Kelly. Lace suggests but does not exhibit. No man wants to marry a woman with all her goods in the show window. She's got to have something in reserve to pique his curiosity. If she expects to pay him for the wedding license.

"The dress, which reveals and the dress, which conceals, must take a back seat when the dress, which almost conceals and almost reveals, comes on the stage.

"Watch one of the fellows, married to a girl who shows a wicked backbone where dancing, or swims in a wicked one-piece suit. The minute he changes her from Miss to Mrs. he begins to add a top to the evening dress and a skirt to the shrunken bathing suit.

"He knows what hooked him, and he does not want to subject other men to the same temptation, poor dear."

"Father of the Chapel."

This term, as applied to the printing industry, is one of religious derivation. When, centuries ago, printing was done in monasteries, it was customary to discuss all matters connected with the work in the chapel, with the father superior in the chair. Hence the term "Father of the Chapel."

To Clean Milk Bottles.

Milk bottles are sometimes a little hard to clean. Before emptying the teapot or tea ball take out some of the wet tea leaves, put them into the milk bottle and add a little cold water. Put your hand over the mouth of the bottle and shake it well. Rinse thoroughly with clear water. The tea leaves take off all that white deposit that makes the glass dull. This method is sure to cleanse.

Iodine Dangerous Drug.

Fumes of iodine have recently been urged as a method of administering that drug preferable to the usual tincture. It has been shown by experiments that fumes are absorbed through the skin, and when inhaled are absorbed by the lungs, but it was shown also that inhalation is very dangerous even in small quantities, especially when there is any disease of the respiratory passages.

Indians Made Salt.

The Delaware Indians made salt from brine springs in New York state and sold it to settlers as early as 1670, making probably the first commercial production of salt in this country. The manufacture of salt by white people in the United States was begun near Syracuse, N. Y., about 1788. Salt is the most commonly used mineral in the world, and no useful mineral except coal, perhaps, occurs in greater abundance or is more widely distributed in the United States.

SMALL TOWN HUMOR AND PHILOSOPHY

By BUCK CAMPBELL

Just as well be in the soup as hot water.

The devil is saving the worst men to tend the furnace.

It is easier to play on a man's sympathy than it is to appease his anger.

Be careful or you may lose your head as well as your hat on the election.

The man without enemies may have to be buried in the potters' field for the lack of friends.

While you are spending your time watching your enemies, be careful that your friends do not get the best of you.

Nation's "Balance of Trade."

"Balance of trade" is an expression used by political economists to indicate the difference between the value of the exports and imports of a country. This theory of the balance of trade grew out of the mercantile theory, which considers the possession of gold to be the chief object of trade. Hence, there rose the belief that a nation increases in wealth to the extent that the money value of its exports exceeds that of imports.

TAXATION ACTS SNOWED UNDER

Ohio Voters Reject Proposed Amendments.

OLD AGE PENSIONS ALSO HIT

Rural Counties of the State Poll Heavy Vote Against All Six of the Propositions Submitted — Workmen's Compensation Amendment Also Suffers Heavily in the Country Districts.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Returns indicate the defeat of every statewide proposal submitted to the voters of Ohio. Possible exceptions might be the proposed amendments to the constitution which provide for strengthening of the workmen's compensation system, and which eliminate the words "white male" from the sections defining qualifications of a voter.

Voters in the rural districts apparently were taking no chances, and voted "no" on all of the six propositions submitted. Even the workmen's compensation amendment, which had practically no opposition, and which was supported by the Ohio Manufacturers' association and the Ohio Federation of Labor, suffered heavily in the country. Votes against it were far greater than those against the voting qualifications, this being attributed to the fact that the women voters nearly all favored the removal of the apparent restrictions against their franchise.

Governor Donahey's veto of the Taft and Albaugh taxation bills last winter apparently was upheld overwhelmingly by the electorate, majorities of as high as five to one being rolled up against the two proposals in some rural counties.

The proposed old age pension system was snowed under. The proposed constitutional amendment, which would have given the secretary of state the right to print arguments for and against proposals which go on a statewide initiative or referendum ballot in newspapers rather than to send them through the mail, also met with defeat.

Returns from 85 counties show: Workmen's compensation, yes 224,720, no 218,597; Taft referendum, yes 136,955, no 298,613; Albaugh referendum, yes 86,494, no 305,433. Old age pension, yes 145,715, no 313,528.

Thomas Re-elected.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Mayor James J. Thomas was re-elected over three opponents. He has a decisive majority in first-choice votes. Thomas' vote was more than double that of his nearest opponent, Randolph W. Walton. Wyatt Millikin and John T. Adams received only a scattered handful of ballots. The Republicans captured other city offices, but were not so fortunate in the council race, where Olga Anna Jones and John M. Lewis, backed jointly by the Democratic organization and the Columbus Home Rule association, were successful. The home rulers will control the council. The city voted to adopt eastern time all year.

Cleveland Elects Council.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—Some 120,000 Cleveland citizens voted at the first "proportional representation" councilmanic election. From this council of 25 members will be chosen one to act as mayor, who will also preside at the meetings of council. A city manager, in whom will vest practically all real power, will be chosen outside the councilmanic body. The official count, which will determine the greater part of the membership, begins Thursday morning. The complete make-up of the new council will not be known for two or three weeks at least.

Had Klan Support.

Akron, O., Nov. 7.—Mayor D. C. Rybolt, Republican, was re-elected mayor at Tuesday's election, piling up a plurality of nearly 12,000 votes over his Democratic opponent, R. A. Myers. It was one of the most decisive victories gained in a local municipal election. Rybolt was said to have the support of Klan.

Gableman Defeated.

Portsmouth, O., Nov. 7.—Ralph Calvert, Republican, defeated Mayor William N. Gableman, candidate for re-election by over 1,000. Mayor Gableman two weeks ago ordered the arrest of marching Ku Klux Klansmen and the Klan centered their fight upon him.

Hawkins Re-elected.

Steubenville, O., Nov. 7.—Mayor Frank A. Hawkins, bitterly fought by the Ku Klux Klan, has been re-elected.

GEORGE LOCKWOOD

Scheible Elected Mayor.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 7.—Charles F. Scheible, Klan candidate for mayor of Youngstown, was elected here by an estimated plurality of 6,000 over five opponents.

Brough Wins.

Toledo, Nov. 7.—Mayor Bernard Brough, Republican, has been re-elected mayor of Toledo.

Discuss Railroad Problem.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa went to the white house at President Coolidge's request to discuss the railroad problem and the question of remedial legislation at the coming session of congress. On leaving the president's office, Senator Cummins declared his talk with the president will not result in any change in his intention to introduce his bill for compulsory consolidation of the hundreds of existing lines into a small number of competitive regional systems shortly after congress is convened in December.

Girl Murdered.

Akron, O., Nov. 7.—After assaulting Elizabeth Nagy, 13, Alexander Kuszik, 19, struck the girl in the forehead with a hammer, killing her instantly, according to the police, who are holding the youth on a charge of murder.

REPUBLICANS HOLD VERMONT

Dale Defeats Coolidge's Cousin For Senator.

HONORS DIVIDED IN NEW YORK

Democrats Sweep the Metropolis, While Republicans Make Gain in Next State Assembly—Kentucky and Maryland Elect Democratic State Officers—Latest Returns of the Elections.

Montpelier, Vt., Nov. 7.—President Coolidge's native state remains rock-ribbed Republican and the president's cousin, a Democrat, will continue to sell groceries at his general store in Cavendish.

Porter H. Dale of Island Pond, as staunch a Republican as ever lived among the Green mountains, was elected United States senator to succeed the late William P. Dillingham, Republican. Dale by a vote of two to one defeated Park H. Pollard, Democrat, of Cavendish, a cousin of President Coolidge.

The wets and the dries saw some significance in the election of ex-Congressman Dale to the senatorship. Dale had stood on a dry platform. Pollard advocated liberalizing the eighteenth amendment. So the dries claimed they had it. A third candidate for senator, Marshall J. Hapgood, the "Sage of Peru," and the largest landowner in southern Vermont, polled a few votes here and there.

The contest in the Second congressional district for the seat in the house of representatives formerly held by Mr. Dale, developed into a landslide for Colonel Ernest W. Gibson of Brattleboro, Rep.

RESULTS IN NEW YORK

Democrats Sweep Greater City and Republicans Gain Congressman.

New York, Nov. 7.—Republicans and Democrats divided the honors in the election in New York state.

Returns show that the Republicans will control the next state assembly with a gain of six seats. The present representation is 81 Republicans and 69 Democrats. The Republicans also gained one in their representation in congress by the election of Benjamin E. Fairchild in the Twenty-fourth district. He will succeed James V. Ganly, Democrat, who was recently killed in an automobile accident. In Greater New York the Democrats elected 10 judges by pluralities approximating 145,000. In the Thirty-second congressional district former Speaker Thaddeus C. Sweet, Republican, won. The congressional seat left vacant by Bourke Cockran will be taken by J. J. O'Connor, Democrat. Anning S. Prall, Democrat, defeated Guy O. Palmer, Republican, in the Eleventh congressional district.

Maryland Democratic.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—Governor Albert C. Ritchie has been re-elected and virtually the entire Democratic ticket swept into office by a landslide in Baltimore city. City majorities for Ritchie, William S. Gordy and Thomas H. Robinson, candidates for governor, comptroller and attorney general, respectively, will overwhelm Alexander Armstrong, Republican candidate for governor, and his running mates. On the basis of returns the Democrats will control both houses of the next legislature by substantial majorities. Ritchie's plurality is placed at 30,000.

HINTS AT STERN MEASURES

Premier Poincare Telegraphs an Ultimatum to Berlin.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Acting under urgent instructions from the council of ambassadors, Premier Poincare telegraphed an ultimatum to Berlin, demanding that Germany answer before the end of the week whether Germany is willing to permit interallied military control to be resumed. There was no mention of "sanctions" in the ultimatum, but it is understood that France is prepared to take the sternest measures.

The papers here have suddenly dropped their long discussion of the Hughes proposals, under orders to play up the terrible conditions in Germany. It is learned in high quarters that both the Quai d'Orsay and Downing street are seriously alarmed at the state of affairs in Germany. Private information coming in unceasingly over diplomatic wires indicates a state of desperation in the reich approaching a situation near to defiance of the allies.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Padlock Law Attacked.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Attacking the constitutionality of the new "padlock" law, Roy E. Betz and Florence Betz, owners of the Gray Manor inn, a roadhouse near this city, through their attorney, have filed a demurrer to the petition filed by Prosecutor John King against Kathryn Welker, lessee of the inn, to close the place for a year. The demurrer, as filed, does not disclose the grounds upon which the complain of unconstitutionality is based, but merely makes the simple allegation that the law under which the prosecutor's petition is brought is unconstitutional.

Rail Union Heads to Meet.

Cleveland, Nov. 7.—A meeting of the chief executives of the 16 standard railroad labor organizations "for the purpose of agreeing upon a definite legislative policy in connection with matters to come before the next congress" has been called by Warren S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to meet in Washington Nov. 14, Mr. Stone announced.

Insane Prisoners Escape.

Lima, O., Nov. 7.—Three inmates of the Lima state hospital for the criminal insane, two of them listed as dangerous, escaped from the institution. The three men are Joseph Pachek, 24, committed for life for numerous burglaries; John Fulton, 26, and Andrew Sirolnik, who is said to be the most dangerous of the trio, being listed in the violent class.

Power Plant Burns.

Mt. Sterling, O., Nov. 7.—Mt. Sterling was without light or water for 24 hours as a result of the fire which totally destroyed the water and light plant here. The fire started when sparks from the exhaust of an engine fell in some oil. Damage was estimated at $50,000.

Oil Boat Burns.

Gallipolis, O., Nov. 7.—The gas boat Cocoa, owned by the Pure Oil Gas company, Columbus, burned to the water's edge in the Ohio river, near Brush Creek island. Members of the crew saved their lives by jumping on a barge loaded with gasoline, which the Cocoa was towing.

Diphtheria Epidemic.

Wooster, O., Nov. 7.—A diphtheria epidemic at Burbank has caused Wayne county health officials to place a quarantine on the entire village. Newspapers can not be distributed, nor can residents leave their homes, except on urgent business.

Truck Driver Killed.

Columbus, Nov. 7.—Neil Barkus of Circleville was killed near Canal Winchester, this county, when a truck he was driving was struck by a north-bound Hocking Valley train. Barkus was placed on the train, but died before reaching Columbus.

Mayor Curtis Re-elected.

Canton, O., Nov. 7.—Mayor C. C. Curtis, Republican, has been re-elected by a majority of over 3,000 over August Smith, Democrat.

Centennial of Monroe Doctrine.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Coolidge expects to take suitable action commemorating the centennial of the Monroe doctrine next month. It was stated at the white house. The 100th anniversary of President Monroe's message to congress, which included a statement of the doctrine, will occur Dec. 2. President Coolidge, it was explained, expects to comment on the centennial.

AMERICA DESIRES TO BE HELPFUL

President Coolidge Outlines Present Situation.

PARTICIPATION UP TO FRANCE

Chief Executive Lets It Be Known That the American Government is Not Urging Anything on Anyone. Collapse of Hughes Reparations Plan Practically Confirmed—Day's Developments.

Washington, Nov. 7.—President Coolidge practically confirmed the collapse of the Hughes plan for American participation in the reparations controversy.

The confirmation was given following a long conference between the president and Jules Jusserand, French ambassador, and a thorough discussion of the situation by the cabinet.

It was patent that M. Jusserand had failed to impress the chief executive with the soundness of the views held by Premier Poincare, who demands consideration of international indebtedness in return for consenting to a thorough inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay. The French ambassador vainly urged upon the president the opinions spread broadcast from Paris.

Mr. Coolidge adhered strictly to the view that the situation called for a thorough inquiry into Germany's capacity to pay and that there was no connection between such an inquiry and international indebtedness. The president made it plain that the American government was not "urging anything on anyone," and that the French "state of mind" will determine the question of American participation.

The president's estimate of the situation was outlined in his statement substantially as follows: "The American position is a desire to be helpful. We have no other motive. We have no direct interest to serve; no expectation of reaping any reward. We are undertaking to discharge our obligation by lending our counsel, if we can. There is no occasion for being disturbed or discouraged if we can not in 24 hours accomplish what Europe has been trying to do for hundreds of years. We must be patient and do the best we can."

Despite the conviction that the Hughes-Curzon scheme has collapsed, Secretary Hughes and the British government are obviously hard at work to save something from the wreckage. Great Britain hopes that, even without French participation, it may be possible to win American participation in some scheme for dealing with the reparations problem.

TO SEEK LEGISLATION

Farley Would Facilitate Operation of Merchant Marine.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Legislation may be expected from the new congress to facilitate government operation of the American merchant marine, it was indicated at the white house. Chairman Farley told President Coolidge in a recent conference that when he returns from his present European tour he will recommend additional laws. It is assumed he will attempt to induce congress to legalize the scheme for incorporating a number of companies to take over and operate the ships. This plan went on the rocks recently when Attorney General Daugherty unexpectedly ruled it illegal. This plan is believed by Farley to offer a solution of the present differences to a large extent. In the meantime, it is believed certain congressmen will sponsor legislation of their own to help the situation.

Democrats Carry Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 7.—The lead of William J. Fields, Democrat, over Charles I. Dawson, Republican, in the Kentucky gubernatorial race, was placed at about 20,000 in Louisville. Returns from counties of western Kentucky showed substantial Democratic majorities, while a factional Republican fight over a judgeship in the eleventh congressional district is believed to have cost Dawson thousands of votes. Democratic state headquarters are claiming a Fields victory by 40,000.

Cornwell Lands.

London, O., Nov. 7.—Leroy Cornwell, Republican anti-Klan candidate, was elected over C. H. Long, Democrat, by an overwhelming majority.

CURE FOR LUNG DISEASES

Male Goat's Odor Said to Have Important Therapeutic Value.

Paris, Nov. 7.—The peculiar odor of the male goat has an important therapeutic value, according to Dr. George Louvel, in the Medical Review. Dr. Louvel states that this is particularly true in the treatment of tuberculosis and diseases of the lungs and bronchial tubes. "The goat, supposedly charged with the sins of Israel," says Dr. Louvel, "is nothing more nor less than an agent for disinfection created by the Almighty. Put the goat in a stable where cows and other animals are dying and the epidemic soon disappears, and the sick animals recover. I hope to found a sanatorium where the putative smells of the goat will be the sole agent used as a cure for lung diseases." Dr. Louvel points out that the goat is the only animal absolutely immune from tuberculosis. The article asserts that several cases of bronchial pneumonia have been cured by introducing goats into the sick chamber and letting them sleep in the same bed with the patient.

BOOTLEGGERS DO THRIVING BUSINESS

Liquor Shipments From Nassau to United States.

Washington, Nov. 7.—An idea of the vast amount of liquor that is being smuggled into the United States is contained in a report on prohibition activities, submitted to Attorney General Daugherty by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general in charge of dry law enforcement.

Shipments from Nassau alone, practically all of which were destined for the United States, amounted in value during the past year to $7,059,294, the report states. The importations to Nassau during the same period amounted to $4,500,000. "The difference in the figures represents the bootleggers' profits as a result of operations carried on through this one port," says Mrs. Willebrandt.

The department is encouraging wider use of "padlock" proceedings to impress owners with their responsibility for misuse of their property, the report states, adding: "Some success has been achieved in certain districts by this line of proceedings and injunctions are being filed in increasing numbers."

Alberta Province Votes Wet.

Calgary, Alberta, Nov. 7.—Alberta voted wet, according to tabulations of the balloting. The province has been dry for seven years. Returns indicate that the clause calling for government control and sale of liquor will carry by a majority of between 35,000 and 40,000.

LYCEUM THEATER

In the announcement of the continuous presentation of "Able's Irish Rose" at the Lyceum theater for a third week, beginning Sunday matinee November 4, Columbus records for a consecutive run of the same play are broken. Capacity audiences is the general rule here as in all cities in which Anne Nichols' sensational successful comedy is presented, with a heavy advance sale indicating the increasing popularity of "Able."

The splendid cast of players here, a combination of the late Pittsburgh organization and a few members of the present New York company loaned for Columbus engagement have got together in their best stride and are giving a performance of perfect team work. Already the box office ticket sellers are reporting return visits of many patrons who have seen "Able's Irish Rose" more than once. This is a usual feature in the engagements of this play, for its action is so rapid, the dialogue so scintillating and the situations so complicated, that a second or third visit is enjoyed more than the first one. Under all the surface of roaring laugh provoking scenes there are touches of pathos to relieve the strain of continuous laughter and a moral contained in its concrete illustration that a broad spirit of tolerance and love will reconcile age old antagonisms. In this play, Able, a Jewish youth, marries Rosemary Murphy, an Irish Catholic girl, and at once lets loose the warring characteristics contained in the natures of the widely differing viewpoints of their respective fathers. That Able and Rosie marry three times, the ceremonies being performed by a Methodist minister, a Rabbi and a priest, in a vain effort to please their fathers, affords a series of situations better imagined than described. This theme as is the case with the entire play is of course treated from a screamingly funny, humorous angle without offense to the most sensitive. Matinee performances are given Sunday, Wednesday and Saturday.

Handling of Hogs Causes Big Loss

Annual Waste That Is Unnecessary and Most of It Due to Carelessness.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Loss through injury to hogs in shipment to market is an important item affecting the profits of the farmer and shipper. During the past year in a period of six months there were received at nine of the principal stock yards of the country a total of 28,375 dead hogs and 38,708 in a more or less crippled condition, according to reports received by the United States Department of Agriculture. These figures indicate clearly a waste that is largely unnecessary, most of which can be attributed to carelessness on the part of those handling the animals at the points of origin of shipments.

Do Not Hurry Hogs.

Aside from the wrecks and extreme weather conditions, there seems to be no logical reason for so many hogs dying between points of origin and destination. Much fault in this respect is attributed to improper handling of swine just prior to shipment. Quite often hogs about to be shipped are rushed to some small inclosure, penned up in a crowded way, and fed a very heavy ration preparatory to being hauled or driven to a stock car. In getting them to a loading point frequently the animals are prodded, kicked, and hurried until worried into a highly nervous condition. Such hogs are often loaded in cars containing sharp pieces of broken timber, nails sticking out of boards, and in which the flooring is covered with mud and rubbish, no precaution being taken to remedy these dangerous conditions. Often no bedding of any kind is provided. Under such circumstances many of the animals reach the yards badly crippled, the injuries commonly involving the hind quarters, resulting in lowered quality of the most valuable cuts—the hams.

Avoid Crowding Animals.

When ready for market, hogs should be assembled a sufficient length of time prior to the date of shipment to allow them to become rested. They should not be crowded into small pens or houses nor fed heavy rations. If they are driven to the loading point they should not be rushed on the way; if they are hauled too many hogs should not be crowded into the truck or wagon. The loading chutes should not be too steep, should be made secure and should have the sides protected so that the animals will not fall off. Crowding too many hogs in a car, particularly in hot weather, is likely to result in a number of them dying in transit. Loading hogs after a heavy feed is injurious to them. A little hunger is far better for them on the journey than indigestion. There is nothing to be gained in added weight of the animals by forced feeding just before shipping. The aim should be to get as many hogs as possible to the stock yards in good condition.

Rat-Proofing Interest Is Aroused in Oregon

The effect of anti-rat campaigns in Oregon has been notable in the continued interest taken in rat-prevention and rat-proofing measures. One of the largest owners of real estate in the public market of Portland was so favorably impressed with the work done last year under the leadership of the biological survey, United States Department of Agriculture, in destroying rats and in establishing rat-proof conditions that he has torn out the entire interior of two of the largest buildings and is finishing them wholly with concrete with a view to making them completely rat-proof.

In Little Rock, Ark., as a result of the anti-rat campaign which was launched there, steps were taken for the inauguration of a general clean-up campaign in the city and for the establishment of more satisfactory ordinances governing the construction and repair of buildings, the disposal of garbage and the screening of food products.

Tough Fowls Cut Prices and Discourage Sales

Tough chicken is not only a distasteful dish but it discourages the consumption of both live and dressed poultry in cities and towns where the old-fashioned fattening coop has been removed from the back yard by people who now depend upon the farmer or poultry plant owner to feed the birds and put them in shape for the pot and pan.

The skinny birds sent to the market not only get a "cool reception" when they are displayed on the table but the family is not likely to request chicken again soon. Repeat orders are just as essential to the poultryman as they are to other merchants. In this field the flock owner can do much to increase his business and revenue.

Little to Employ Labor Unless Live Stock Kept

After the heavy fall work on crops is completed there is little to profitably employ the labor on a farm unless live stock is kept. Cows, hogs and chickens use time that would not be otherwise occupied in the winter, and consume feeds that could not be marketed otherwise. Returns for this feed and labor increase the net profit to the business by their amount.

HIT BY TRAIN

Cornelius Barkes Died in Hospital as Result of Injuries.

Cornelius Ellsworth Barkes died at Grant hospital, Columbus, Tuesday afternoon at 2:35 o'clock, of injuries received when he was struck by a Hocking Valley passenger train six miles out of Columbus that morning.

His skull was fractured and left leg broken.

He was a son of Thomas Barkes and Rebecca Hickman Barkes and was the sole support of his invalid mother who lives on the Lancaster pike.

He was born February 1, 1875, and he leaves his mother and three brothers and three sisters. They are Mrs. Letta Smyers, Mrs. Dora Drake, Mrs. Rosa Caldwell, James E. Barkes, Henry D. Barkes, of this city, and C. C. Barkes, of Zanesville.

The funeral services will be held from the home of Mrs. Drake, corner Mingo and Union street Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. J. Dollison. Burial in Forest cemetery.

Two Remarkable Rides.

A remarkable achievement of an English rider dates back to Shakespearean days. Robert Carey is said to have ridden from Whitehall to Edinburgh, 400 miles, in three days, carrying the news of the death of Queen Elizabeth to James VI. He made another noted ride from London to the Netherlands, with the news of Cardinal Wolsey's death, traveling by boat from London to Gravesend and riding the intermediate distances. He left London, according to the accounts, at 4 o'clock one afternoon and was back in London at sunset the second day thereafter.

Something About Olives.

Like other fruit trees, the olive tree has many enemies, including birds and insects. The most dreaded of these is a small fly called dacus oleae, half the size of a house fly. It is calculated that a single fly will destroy 300 or 400 olives. The only remedy is to gather the fruit early, and by crushing it at once destroy the larvae.

CECIL FANNING

Famous Baritone Will be at the School Auditorium Friday.

Columbus set its seal of approval on Cecil Fanning Monday night when he appeared in a concert at Memorial hall. He sang in four languages and every syllable was distinct. Clearness of diction is one of Mr. Fanning's marked characteristics. The judgment of his audience was that his mastery of tone which was flowing, inspiring and sympathetic, together with his interpretive genius and natural and winning personality, make him one of America's best singers. On several occasions applause broke forth before Mr. Fanning had finished the final note in a selection.

He will present practically the same program Friday evening at the high school auditorium in Circleville.

Tickets may be purchased from members of the club and at Wilder's, Hamilton & Ryan and Grand-Girard's drug stores.

Tolling the "Passing Bell."

The passing bell was rung in English pre-reformation times for the dying as well as after death. The practice grew out of the belief that devils and evil spirits troubled the dying and lay in wait to torment the soul when it had left the body. After the reformation the passing bell was discontinued, although tolling after a death is still the custom.

Biblical Petroleum.

Petroleum is first mentioned in the Bible in the account of the destruction of the tower of Babel. The partially evaporated fluid is there referred to as "slime" which "they had for mortar."

HARTMAN THEATER

The first of the great metropolitan girl-and-music annuals to be seen in Columbus this season is the Greenwich Village Follies. The new fourth edition of this picturesque and refreshingly artistic revue will be on display at the Hartman theater Columbus for a single week starting Monday night, November 12. Last season it was conceded to be the revue hit of New York where it played for 32 weeks at the Shubert theater. For the past weeks it has been a soaring success at the Apollo theater, Chicago, and it comes to Columbus direct from that city in a special train of eight cars. Three of the Greenwich Village series have already exhibited in Columbus to enthusiastic audiences and this newest version is reputed to surpass all its predecessors in gaiety, wit, pictorial and melodic excellence.

The fine enthusiasm and youthful buoyancy which marks the deportment of the current "Follies" can be credited to the artistry and imaginative genius of its creator, John Murray Anderson. Anderson is said to have the best eye for color and grouping of any of our stage producers, a claim well substantiated in the present "Follies." A novelty constructed and adroitly schemed revue is this "Follies," with song, dance and japey interlaced in a happy and fleetly moving picture.

It burlesques Balieff and Chauve Souris, goes back to the days of Tony Pastor for a comic bout with the illustrated songs of that period ascends to high art in a reproduction of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" and an interpretation of Oscar Wilde's "The Nightingale and the Rose," becomes precariously modern in a humorous sketch "Life Among the Advertisements," and all in all runs an amazingly long gamut of diversified entertainment.

Mr. Anderson has summoned an imposing list of players under his gay banner to compete in the "Follies." Prominent among them is Carl Randall, Karyl Norman, "The Creole Fashion Plate," Ula Sharon, George Rasely, John Sheehan, Dorothy Neville, Ethel Davis, Julia Silvers, Marjorie Peterson, George Christie, Louis and Frieda Berkoff, Fortunella and Cirillino, Ch'nton and DeRex and Chase and LaTour and the thirty famous artists' models.

The book of the "Follies" is by George V. Hobart, with contributions from George B. Kaufman and William K. Wells. The music is by Louis A. Hirsch and the lyrics by John Murray Anderson and Irving Caesar. Conspicuous among these last and well known are "Sixty Seconds Every Minute" and "Sweetheart Lane."

The Greenwich Village Follies is said to move with flawless pace and happy temp, flouting all the blueprints and traditions of the stage and providing ample recreation for the eye as well as regaling the ear.

Mail orders from out of town people will be given careful consideration if addressed to the Hartman boxoffice accompanied by check or money order

Beyond His Control.

Robert had entertained his cousin for two or three days, but at the end of the third day, a discussion arose and a hand to hand fight ensued. His mother, hearing the commotion, quickly rushed to the scene and admonished, "It isn't nice to fight, Robert," she said, "especially your own relation and guest," but her son in the heat of passion, replied, "It don't make any difference whether he is my 'laton or not, my mad feels just the same."

The Power in a Tree.

A young man wished to measure the force that drives the sap upward in trees and shrubs. So he cut a vine and tied a bladder over its end. In two hours the bladder was greatly distended, and inside of three hours it burst with a pop, so great is the force that drives sap upward.—Popular Science Monthly.

WANT MRS. HARDING

May Become Delegate-at-Large to the Republican Convention.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Florence Kling Harding, widow of President Harding, has been asked to join the councils of the party her late husband led to victory. They want her to become a delegate-at-large from the state of Ohio to the next Republican convention, both as a tribute to the memory of Mr. Harding and for her genuine worth as a sound politician and adviser. There is also the probability, if she will consent to come from retirement to represent her state, that she will be asked to go a step further and accept some more important post in the national committee during the forthcoming campaign. She has not definitely reached a decision, it was learned, but inclines very strongly toward accepting the state position at any rate.

Victims' Bodies Recovered.

Beckley, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Twenty-seven men were killed by an explosion in the Glen Rogers mine of the Raleigh-Wyoming Coal company, in a remote mountain district 25 miles from here. The bodies have been recovered. The explosion was confined to one entry.

West Virginia Wins.

New York, Nov. 7.—Fifteen thousand football fans saw West Virginia trounce hitherto undefeated Rutgers by a score of 27 to 7, in the Polo grounds here. The field was heavy and muddy in spots. It was Rutgers' first defeat of the season.

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter.

Elyria, O., Nov. 7.—Joseph Chepal, indicted for second degree murder in the killing of Joe Biro, during a quarrel at South Amherst, was permitted to plead guilty to manslaughter. He was sentenced to the penitentiary for from one to 20 years.

Walton Appeals to Federal Courts.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—Governor J. C. Walton has appealed to the federal courts in an effort to invoke government intervention in the situation here. On the outcome of the action is expected to depend the question of whether the impeachment proceedings against the executive will be disposed of in the near future, or whether they will await a final decision by the United States supreme court.

You don't need to go out of town to have your pleating done. Just go to the phone and call Barnhill's No. 710.

AMUSEMENTS

"How does the boy do it?" you hear in awesome and admiring tones from those who have watched the progress of Harold Lloyd during the last three years, each picture setting a higher standard than the last, until it seems that surely he has reached the zenith of comedy production. But then comes his next Pathecomedie, and it is not only funnier, but is different in type.

Now we have "Why Worry" to not only laugh at, but to shake our heads at and marvel over. It is Lloyd's first serious attempt at straight farce. Here are real characters and entirely probable situations exaggerated to a state of absurdity that yet remains within the realms of possibility.

"Why Worry," is the story of an American youth, accustomed to luxury who has a flare of adventure in his make-up. He goes to South America and promptly becomes enmeshed in a fierce, fiery and flaming revolution. It is a story of intrigue and romance such as Richard Harding Davis would revel in, yet containing surprises and twists such as O. Henry would give it, and is a decided departure from previous Lloyd stories.

From the moment Lloyd is introduced being taken aboard ship on a stretcher to the final fade-out, where he is tying up traffic, "Why Worry" is one mirthful, hilarious situation after another each situation inextricably bound up with the plot, thereby producing a staccato laugh effect thruout the entire development of a story that intrigues the interest, while adding the glow of romance.

Conspicuous among Lloyd's aides in "Why Worry" are Jobyna Ralston and John Aasen. Jobyna is young, pretty and spirited. Aasen is an 8 foot 9 inch giant and is such a hit we prophecy giants on the screen will be in demand hereafter. He takes you back to the days when you believed in Jack, the Giant Killer.

"Why Worry" is a riot of fun and the only thing for you to worry about is getting into the Met theater during its run.

Time.

Now, for the truth of things, time makes no alteration; things are still the same as they are, let the time be past, present, or to come. Those things which we reverence for antiquity, what were they at their first birth? Were they false?—Time cannot make them true. Were they true?—Time cannot make them more true. The circumstance, therefore, of time, in respect of truth and error, is merely impertinent.—John Hales (1628).

PAY WIDOWS OF "VETS" OF 1812

U. S. Still Gives Pensions to Widows of Men Who Fought 111 Years Ago.

Washington.—How long a pension list persists after war is over is shown in a striking manner by the rolls of the government for the War of 1812 and for the Mexican war. There is not a veteran of the War of 1812 alive, yet it cost the government $18,010 for pensioners of that war during the past year.

On June 30 last there were 38 widows and one dependent daughter of veterans of 1812 on the pension list. The seventy-fifth anniversary of the close of the Mexican war was celebrated on May 30 last, and yet during the fiscal year 1923 there were 49 veterans and 1,030 widows of veterans who fought in that war receiving $717,847 in pensions from the government.

It is a curious fact that not one of the pensioners of the War of 1812 was born when the war was confounded. The oldest is one hundred and four years old, while the youngest is sixty-three. One other is over the one hundred mark. The rest range between eighty and one hundred years. The explanation is that the veterans married women much younger than themselves. In the case of the widow pensioner sixty-three years old her husband must have been from forty-five to fifty-five years older.

Mexican "Vets" Over Ninety.
All of the veterans of the Mexican war are over ninety years of age, the oldest one being Urbain Chaudier of San Francisco, who passed the one hundredth milestone on June 6, 1923. A unique Mexican war case is that of William Brown of Camden, N. J., who at the tender age of eight years enlisted in the marine corps and fought throughout the war.

War is a costly business, not only from the point of view of actual fighting expenses but also that of paying pensions to the old and disabled veterans and their dependent widows and children, officials of the bureau of pensions assert. Back in 1877 there were 232,104 persons on the pension rolls of the government, involving an annual disbursement of $28,182,821.72. This was when the largest number of War of 1812 and Mexican war pensioners were on the rolls. A few years later Civil war veterans began to take advantage of the pension privilege and the expense jumped much higher.

Pensions Total $263,012,500.
While there are no separate figures available as to just what the disbursements were to War of 1812 and Mexican war pensioners for those years, it is known that they figured very heavily in the total. In 1885 the pension disbursement amounted to $65,171,937.12 with 345,125 persons on the rolls. From then on it gradually increased until 1919, when the cost was $222,159,292, with 624,427 persons on the rolls. For 1923 the total amount of pensions paid out was $263,012,500. Most of this amount, of course, was paid to Civil war and Spanish war pensioners, less than $1,000,000 of it going to pensioners of the War of 1812 and Mexican war.

There are no longer any soldiers who actually fought in the War of 1812 on the pension rolls, the last one being Hiram Cronk, who died in Ava, N. Y., in 1905, at the age of one hundred and five. The last soldier pensioner of the Revolutionary war was Daniel F. Bakeman, who died at Freedom, N. Y., in 1869, at the age of one hundred and nine years, while the last pensioner of the Revolutionary war was Esther S. Damon, widow of Noah Damon, who died at Plymouth Union, Vt., in 1906, at the age of ninety-six years.

35,000 Widows Pensioned.
All told, approximately 35,000 widows of soldiers of the War of 1812 were granted service pensions, the high water mark being reached in 1879, when there were 18,177 on the rolls.

The original 35,000 widows of soldiers of the War of 1812 who were granted pensions had shrunk to only 40 on June 30. Since that time death has claimed one of them, reducing the figure to 39. Of the many thousands of veterans and widows of veterans of the Mexican war who were granted pensions only 49 veterans and 1,030 widows of veterans remain. An idea of how fast the number is decreasing can be gained by the figures for the last fiscal year. On June 30, 1922, there were 49 pensioners of the War of 1812, compared to only 40 one year later. On June 30, 1922, there were 1,051 Mexican war pensioners on the rolls, compared to only 1,085 one year later.

The amount paid to pensioners of the War of 1812 ranges anywhere from $10 to $100 a month. But most of them receive not over $50 a month. It all depends on the extent of their disability, and the amount necessary to insure them proper medical attention.

German Art Thieves Busy.
Munich.—Burglars recently rifled the villa of the late Franz von Lenbach, painter of the well-known Bismarck pictures who has been dead for 20 years, and stole a number of valuable masterpieces. These included a picture by Franz Hals called "The Laughing Boys," two pictures by Teniers, an original sketch by Rubens, and a number of paintings by Lucas Cranach and other celebrated artists.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Monday evening a jolly crowd of the east end folks gathered at the home of Mrs. George Hartman in East Franklin street, to remind her that Sunday had been her birthday. To say she was surprised would be expressing it mildly for she was getting ready to retire when the noisy bunch burst in upon her. Nevertheless all were welcomed heartily. A very enjoyable evening followed listening to some fine Victrola music, conversation and last but not least, some jolly old-fashioned games in which old and young entered heartily. This caused much merriment, as some very comical stunts were put on. Dainty refreshments of delicious homemade cake, ice cream, nuts and coffee were served and at a late hour all departed wishing Mrs. Hartman many more such happy birthdays. Those present were Mrs. Elizabeth Peters, Mrs. Emma Bolender, Mrs. Steinhouser and daughters Dorothy and Margaret, Mrs. Doris Justice and son, Jack, Mrs. John Staiger, Mrs. Ananias Morris, Mrs. M. R. White, Mrs. Harry Welch, Miss Nelle McCollister and niece, Violet, Mrs. Maude Noggle, Mrs. Luther Noggle, Mrs. Maggie Smith, Mrs. Will Kockensparger and baby, Mrs. Georgia Cutler and daughter, Geraldine, Mrs. Pearl Harrison, Mrs. Bessie Long and daughters, Ruth and Margaret, Mrs. Samuel Hawks, Mrs. O. K. Heise, Mrs. Abbie Gussman, Mrs. Kate Reichelderfer, Mrs. Imbler, Mrs. Claude Robison and son, James and the host and hostess, Mrs. Hartman was presented with a box of pretty handkerchiefs and a dollar bill.

Hotel Stenographer

BY ROE FULKERSON

"Blooie," exclaimed the Detective.
"She leaves little to the imagination," agreed the Hotel Stenographer. "I know by the way that dress is cut down at the neck that she is either French, or an American woman just home from Paris."

"But women who fall out of their clothes, like that, cannot hope to land many men. They are like the ballyhoo of the sideshow, who pulls all his stuff on a platform in front of the tent and leaves no incentive for the rube to go in and see more."

"Lace is intriguing, Kelly. Lace suggests but does not exhibit. No man wants to marry a woman with all her goods in the show window. She's got to have something in reserve to pique his curiosity, if she expects to pay him for the wedding license."

"The dress, which reveals and the dress, which conceals, must take a back seat when the dress, which almost conceals and almost reveals, comes on the stage."

"Watch one of the fellows, married to a girl who shows a wicked backbone where dancing, or swims in a wicked one-piece suit. The minute he changes her from Miss to Mrs. he begins to add a top to the evening dress and a skirt to the shrunken bathing suit."

"He knows what hooked him, and he does not want to subject other men to the same temptation, poor dear."

"Father of the Chapel."

This term, as applied to the printing industry, is one of religious derivation. When, centuries ago, printing was done in monasteries, it was customary to discuss all matters connected with the work in the chapel, with the father superior in the chair. Hence the term "Father of the Chapel."

To Clean Milk Bottles.

Milk bottles are sometimes a little hard to clean. Before emptying the teapot or tea ball take out some of the wet tea leaves, put them into the milk bottle and add a little cold water. Put your hand over the mouth of the bottle and shake it well. Rinse thoroughly with clear water. The tea leaves take off all that white deposit that makes the glass dull. This method is sure to cleanse.

Iodine Dangerous Drug.

Fumes of Iodine have recently been urged as a method of administering that drug preferable to the usual tincture. It has been shown by experiments that fumes are absorbed through the skin, and when inhaled are absorbed by the lungs, but it was shown also that inhalation is very dangerous even in small quantities, especially when there is any disease of the respiratory passages.

Indians Made Salt.

The Delaware Indians made salt from brine springs in New York state and sold it to settlers as early as 1670, making probably the first commercial production of salt in this country. The manufacture of salt by white people in the United States was begun near Syracuse, N. Y., about 1788. Salt is the most commonly used mineral in the world, and no useful mineral except coal, perhaps, occurs in greater abundance or is more widely distributed in the United States.

Just as well be in the soup as hot water.

It is easier to play on a man's sympathy than it is to appease his anger.

Nation's "Balance of Trade." "Balance of trade" is an expression used by political economists to indicate the difference between the value of the exports and imports of a country. This theory of the balance of trade grew out of the mercantile theory, which considers the possession of gold to be the chief object of trade. Hence, there rose the belief that a nation increases in wealth to the extent that the money value of its exports exceeds that of imports.

1 CENT CHECK CAUSES NO END OF TROUBLE

Payment by the United States to Cheyenne National Bank Is Finally Returned.

Major W. P. Simpson of the United States Quartermaster corps, who is now employed in the offices of the World War Veterans' State Aid commission at Salem, Ore., displayed a check for one cent, which, according to his statements, has caused correspondence aggregating many dollars.

In 1918, during the World war, Major Simpson deposited in the Stock Growers' National bank at Cheyenne, government funds amounting to $11,995.95. Many months later Major Simpson received a letter from the bank that the account was one cent short, based on Major Simpson's checks, and that a remittance would be appreciated.

Investigation by Major Simpson showed that the books of the United States Treasury department coincided with the claim of the bank, and much correspondence followed. Finally, after hundreds of letters had been exchanged between Major Simpson, the Treasury department and the Cheyenne bank, the former sent a check to the depository for 1 cent.

Before this transaction was completed, however, the bank apparently balanced the account by appropriating the 1 cent from its funds, and the incident was closed. As a result the Cheyenne bank returned Major Simpson's check, which he now proposes to have framed as a relic of the World war.

The check was the smallest ever issued by the quartermaster department, in which Major Simpson was actively employed during the World conflict.

TO PRINT JAPAN'S MONEY

U. S. to Help Tokyo Until New Plant Can Be Erected.

At a meeting of the cabinet in Washington recently President Coolidge was told that the Japanese government had applied to the United States for assistance in printing paper money. Behind the application was the fact that the Japanese government printing establishment, corresponding to the bureau of printing and engraving in Washington, had been destroyed in the recent devastating earthquake and fire.

The United States government will offer its own paper currency printing plant for use by Japan during the emergency and will put Japanese representatives in touch with American establishments capable of furnishing the presses and other material necessary to enable reconstruction of the destroyed Japanese plant.

One of the features of the offer to be made by this government will enable Japan to take over hand presses previously used in printing our currency in the bureau of engraving and printing, but abandoned with the installation of steam presses.

PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

Miss Georgia Hopley Makes Address at Jackson Township School.

Crusade is for the Milk Bottle Against the Whisky Bottle—Organizations Asked to Endorse Stand Taken by President Coolidge and Governors.

"The crusade today is for the milk bottle against the whisky bottle," said Miss Georgia Hopley in addressing a meeting at the Jackson township centralized school building Sunday afternoon. "Is the milk bottle or the beer bottle more desirable or more important in the American home? One fills the tenant houses, jails, insane asylums and penitentiaries, the other the schools, colleges churches and homes with happy well fed, well clad mothers and children. It is to be free America or spree America. Light wine and beer are twin wolves in sheep's clothing and a beer drunk is said to be the worst drunk of all."

Miss Hopley, who is from the Constructive Information bureau at Washington, in the department of federal prohibition Commissioner Haynes addressed the congregation at the Baptist church in Circleville at the regular Sunday morning service.

"The important feature of the enforcement of the prohibition amendment today said Miss Hopley, 'is the education of the people. The whole campaign is one of education and it is up to all of us to teach both the children and the adult just what are the issues involved in this question. It is the duty of those of us who do believe in law and order versus lawlessness, to state our case so clearly and convincingly that a new generation will grow up with a clear understanding of the real shame of the conditions as they exist today. The way to get rid of the darkness is to turn on the light and education is light. The antidote for anti-prohibition is facts, administered in homeopathic doses."

Among the homeopathic doses administered by Miss Hopley was the statement that drink has filled more graves than all the wars. That while $8,250,000 is the sum allotted for the federal work of prohibition unit drink formerly cost the nation $2,000,000,000 annually which would have built 325,600 homes at $3,800 each and three times the amount spent on schools and twice the value of all the church property. Liquor appetites were being created while today they are being cured. There has been outlawed 177,790 saloons, 1,090 breweries and 236 distilleries. There was formerly manufactured annually 19½ million gallons of real beer while today there is manufactured 1½ millions of near beer. Connie Mack, the great baseball magnate has said all the umpires together haven't put out of the game as many men as old man booze.

Miss Hopley urges all clubs and organizations thruout the United States to write the governors in the name of the club expressing their appreciation of the stand taken at the recent conference at Washington of President Coolidge and the governors with the assurance that they will lend their cooperation in the enforcement of the prohibition amendment with the intention of proving themselves to be one hundred per cent American.

"A similar stand on the part of the public press," said Miss Hopley, "would lessen the expense in every department of the world, expedite matters, save lives and place American citizens on a higher standard thruout the entire world."

After the close of Miss Hopley's splendid address Sunday afternoon a Woman's Christian Temperance Union was organized with the following officers: President Mrs. John J. Renick; vice president, Mrs. Ida Rader; secretary, Mrs. Ethel Shook; treasurer Mrs. Hazel Rader. The first meeting of this new union will be held at the home of its president, Mrs. John J. Renick, Wednesday afternoon, November 21.

FOOTBALL

Miller Fissell is Making Good on Team at Miami Institute.

The Dayton News in its account of the football game between West Alex andria and the Miami Military institute at Germantown, had the following reference to Miller Fissell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fissell.

"Fissell, M. M. I. quarterback, went over the line on an optional run or pass play in the second quarter and added the extra point on a drop kick.

"The cadets scored twice in the second half. A pass, Fissell to Collcott, was responsible for the second touchdown of the game, and a pass intercepted by Tate, M. M. I. leftend, gave cadets their final marker. Fissell added the extra point in both cases by booting two pretty goals."
